Scheme of Work

2023-2024

Structure of Scheme

For over 50 years, the bbodance Scholars Scheme has been offering talented students the opportunity to receive additional training with some of the most respected teachers in the UK.

From Autumn 2022, the scheme will provide specialised training in Classical Ballet and Jazz (non-syllabus based). It will consist of fortnightly classes held in Birmingham (with Senior Ballet classes held in London), and an intensive weekend during the Easter holidays that allows students to showcase what they have learnt throughout their time on the scheme.

Scholars classes help students develop artistry, technique, musicality, and performance skills and acceptance onto the scheme will be via audition each year. Various awards will be presented to outstanding Scholars students, including a prize of £2000 towards vocational training to the Senior Scholar of the Year!

Aims & Learning Objectives

- To develop and refine the technique required for the relevant level (Junior, Mid or Senior) in relation to the bbodance Graded Examination specifications
- To develop artistic and performance skills, demonstrated via the presentation of work at Scholars Weekend
- To explore repertoire from at least two different Ballet or Musical Theatre productions to embed wider understanding of dance to enhance performance

Term 1

For Ballet, focusing on the relevant syllabus vocabulary for each level in the technique class:

Juniors: Grades 3 – 4

Mids: Grades 5 – Intermediate Foundation

Seniors: Intermediate & up

Then focusing on Ballets by Sir Frederick Ashton period for the repertoire class. For example:

La Fille mal gardée (1960), Cinderella (1948), Les Patineurs (1937), Symphonic Variations (1946)
